

COLORED PENCIL CLASSES

IN GREEN VALLEY, ARIZONA

WINTER CLASSES 2011

Colored Pencil from the Beginning

This class is all about coloring--no drawing required! No mess, no fumes, no wet stuff. Start with the basics. You'll be surprised how easy it is to get great results.
Tuesdays: Jan. 3, 10, 17, 24, 31

Photoshop for the Timid Artist

Make friends with the tools, tame filters, manage layers--and more. You'll wonder how you ever got along without it. Laptop w/Photoshop or Elements required.
Wednesdays: Jan. 4, 11, 18, 25, Feb. 1

Colored Pencil Continues

You've learned the basics, now take it a step farther. Learn how to work on a variety of surfaces, how to choose and match color, and how to get great results. This class makes it easy.
Tuesdays: Feb. 7, 14, 21, 28, Mar. 6

Shiny Metal with the Colored Pencil

Learn how to reproduce silver, brass, copper--and more. Janie shares her secrets for making it shiny and reflective. Color formulas make it easy!
Wednesdays: Feb. 8, 15, 22, 29, Mar. 7

Time: 9am to 11:30am

Price: per 5-week class: $125 plus supplies

Directions and Materials List provided with registration

SPRING CLASSES 2012

Pen and Ink I

Go back to this time-honored method of drawing in black and white. Learn to use hatching and dots to build form and volume. Experience the power of line!
Wednesdays: March 14, 21, 28, April 4, 11

Desert Flower Portraits

Take advantage of the blossoming desert to create a flower portrait. Learn how to make your own color formulas. Some outside sketching. Camera for reference photos.
Tuesdays: April 17, 24, May 1, 8, 15

Scratchboard

Draw with white! It's the opposite of drawing with pen and ink. This time you work on black, and the line you make is snowy white!
Wednesdays: April 18, 25, May 2, 9, 16

REGISTRATION & INFORMATION: janie@janiegildow.com